THE KIND OF MAN.

"AND you really want my opinion on this question, Fred?"
 "Yes, and I'm all at-tion."
 "And you promise not to use my views in your behalf?"
 "I promise anything and everything; am perfectly disinterested and am seeking information only to benefit my fellowmen."
 "Really? Such unselfishness is exceptional in one so young; but I suppose you have become imbued with the statistical mania or thirst for vengeance since your experience with the census man."
 "My armor of good nature is impenetrable tonight. Your keenest shafts fail."
 "Gracious! What did you have for supper? Well, then, I may as well proceed with my dissertation —but say, Fred, are you going to interview any other girl on this question, too?"
 "Well, you don't care if I do, do you?"
 "Oh, no, of course not; still, if you were depending entirely upon me, you know, I might try a little harder to give better ideas."
 "I yield, as usual. You can give me your very best thoughts."
 "Oh, thanks. First, you know women's likes and dislikes change so with age and experience. What period of life do you want? Crib-age, sauce-age, man-age, or home-
 age?"
 "Why not add rum-age and damage?"
 "Just because I am talking about women and not men. Now, will you try to temper your sarcasm?
 But to continue, the first two ages are too youthful to be interesting to either of us. Symptoms of the man-age begin to show at very tender age in some."
 "How delightfully frank. You're sure you aren't talking of an attack of measles?"
 "Don't be impertinent. I'm telling the truth. In others the symptoms show more slowly, so that it almost seems as if they would never appear at all, but the fatal age comes sooner or later."
 "And you are sure there are no exceptions?"
 "Perfectly."
 "Thank you for that much encouragement, at least."
 "I don't understand."
 "Never mind now; proceed, for I'm intensely interested."
 "A girl just entering the manage period isn't so particular. She judges by the outside covers. If a man wears good clothes, has a jaunty appearance, can talk bright small talk—yes, she is susceptible to good looks, especially soft, soulful brown eyes, curly locks and all that sort of thing. He must dance divinely, of course, and her cup of happiness is filled to the very brim if he can quote tender lines of poetry. Should all these charms prove futile, a cane and a pair of patent leathers would certainly conquer. Oh, yes, it's rather foolish, but most of us, unless very strong minded, can look back to this sort of Beau Brummel hero.
 There is one advantage of this age, however; it is usually brief. You can't blame us much because, you know it is only actual experience that teaches us to suspend judgment of the fruit until we have cut it to view the core."
 "It seems to me this man-age, too, is somewhat callow to be very interesting. Let's go to the next."
 "Oh, not so fast, dear sir. The man-age is a long, long age. Why, in some cases it is the only age (no marri-age or home-age, you know), but there are many different stages."
 "Oh, I see—evolution."
 "Yes, something like that. If not evolution, at least variety."
 "Pardon me for asking questions, but can you tell me why so many apparently nice girls seem to favor the blase, reckless and oft times seemingly good-for-nothing men of the world?"

"I've been expecting that. Well, you remember Eve?"
 "Fairly well, although I could scarcely be classed as contemporary."
 "I beg your pardon. You remember the story, I mean, of the temptation and fall—all caused by curiosity. That old failing still clings to womankind with the tenacity of a barnacle. The life of a worldly man seems a sort of mystery to a girl with little or no experience. The hint of vice, the suggestive remonstrances of her friends, all make her the more determined to find out for herself.
 She certainly does not like him because of his vices, but her own discoveries are made so gradually that she fails to realize her danger until her conquest is complete, and we all know how hard it is to wean ourselves from any one or anything of which we have become fond even when we realize fully the frailties and worthlessness."
 "But often it is the bright, wide-awake woman of the world who falls in love with this sort of man."
 "I hardly know how much you mean to convey by the term 'this sort of man,' but I suppose you mean the good fellow kind. I'll tell you women hate sham—in man, at least. The man who makes a great pretense of goodness and perfection must, naturally, slip, occasionally, and so women turn to the men who do not pretend to all the virtues on the moral calendar, because they think they are more sincere of the two. A sort of Scylla and Charybdis, I admit."
 "Or in modern English, 'Between the devil and the deep, deep sea.' How about men who compliment and flatter?"
 "Many women say they don't like the trait. I am sure it isn't very pleasant to listen to it unless it is addressed to one's self. But, if the truth were told, most of us do like it, just as we like pie and cake, even though we know it isn't good for us. But the majority of women are too sensible to allow it to take the place of the necessary bread and meat. The more graceful a compliment is, the more appreciated, and it would improve most American men to give a little more study to this art, for it is art to convince a plain girl that she is just as attractive as her beautiful sister, or that the color of her eyes is that poetical violet monopolized by heroines of novels, though every one else calls them plain blue; or by a mere look or gesture convey the idea to some commonplace maid that she is the most charming of her sex. It may be questionable art nevertheless.
 However, the man who has not made a study of Chesterfield and his class would best remain silent and listen attentively while his women friends tell him their conquests, plans and compliments, for women do appreciate a good listener when talking about themselves."
 "Is animal strength and vigor necessary?"
 "Women like strength and health thousands have kidney trouble and don't know it.
 How to Find Out.
 Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains
 your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too
 frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.
 What to Do.
 There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidney, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.
 If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. size.
 You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery
 and a book that tells more about it both sent absolutely free by mail,

 Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Capt. Sorcho Breaks the Record.

The latest and greatest feat of Capt. Sorcho, the deep sea diver, was accomplished at the Coliseum in Chicago, December 24, 1901, when he remained under the water in diving suit for nine hours and 12 seconds. The longest any man previously remained under water was a year ago when Capt. Sorcho himself remained in the tank for 8 hours, 40 minutes and 30 seconds.
 This experience was enough to kill an ordinary man when the great water pressure is considered, but he was confident then that he could break his own record and he did so by 20 minutes. During his submersion he employed his time in cleaning out the tank, playing with the fish, chasing a big sea turtle about and taking occasional naps on the bottom under ten feet of water. He talked frequently over the telephone with those in the great hall and his attendants and despite the discomfort he suffered, laughed and joked in a manner that was amazing. For this unequalled feat he received $500 and a magnificent medal proclaiming him the champion deep sea diver of the world, which without question he is. At Mt Sterling, Ky., July 21.

World's Fair Band Secured.

One secret of the excellence of Phinney's celebrated World's Fair Band of thirty-two pieces, which is to play at the Lexington Elks Fair, August 11 to 16 inclusive, lies in the fact that every member is an artist, and many are capable of executing intricate solos, and each member fully understands what is expected of them by their leader in every point of phrasing and tone. With a music library aggregating several thousand pieces and experts employed in arranging new selections, Mr. Phinney is never at a loss to provide, on short notice, a unique and appropriate program. Concerts at the fair are to be given night and day.

You cannot buy standard pianos organs, buggies, sewing machines, clocks, watches and jewelry as cheap anywhere else as you can of me. Come and see samples and you will be convinced. You do not have to risk your money with mail order houses.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

County Conventions at County Seats on July 19th, 1902. District Convention, at West Liberty, Ky., July 24th, 1902. HOPKINS.—HON. F. A. HOPKINS, of Floyd county, is hereby announced as a candidate for the democratic nomination for congress from the Tenth district, subject to action of the democratic party.

DAVIS.—JUDGE AMOS DAVIS, of Morgan county, is hereby announced as a candidate for the democratic nomination for congress from the Tenth district, subject to action of the democratic party.

With the next issue THE HERALD will have rounded out seventeen years of faithful service to the people who have helped to support it, and we are glad to record the fact that many who embarked upon our maiden voyage still have their names upon our manifest. Some have taken passage for only a yearly cruise, and liked the service so well that they have continued with us for years and are still with us. Others have cruised for one, two, and three years, and then had to forego the pleasure on account of financial disability; others have enjoyed the best fare we could furnish for different periods and then sneaked down the gang plank without paying, and they are now, or ought to be in—Through the acts of the latter class and for other reasons, mainly because the passenger list has never been large enough, the fare has never been as good as we would otherwise make it. Then, too, the freight shipments have been light for the past few years, especially from merchants at a distance. Such firms as Louis & Gus Straus, Fred Heintz, Hagan Distilling Co. and the Lexington Brewery—the first two named being old and well satisfied patrons—have consigned good cargoes, and their traffic is appreciated as is all the freight consigned. But we need a larger list of both passengers and freight patrons, and if our friends everywhere will help us to the desired business we will show them the cleanest and the prettiest craft on our eighteenth annual voyage that ever sailed the Kentucky sea of journalism.

The Exodus Begun.

Congress adjourned last week and the exodus of the officials and members has already begun says a dispatch from Washington under date of the 2nd inst. With the adjournment of congress the members of that body, cabinet officers and high officials, together with the foreign diplomats, are getting out of Washington as fast as their plans for the summer will permit them to do so. The President is expected to spend what spare time he has before departing on his long tour of the country at Oyster Bay, with an occasional run to Washington.

Secretary and Mrs. Hay anticipate a quiet summer at their Lake Sunapee home, where Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney will join them in August. The young couple will be much interested in the coming year in the erection of their future home in New York city, the site having been secured in the early spring. Notwithstanding his great wealth and future prospects, young Mr. Whitney is to go to work when he returns from his honeymoon travels.

Mrs. Root and her sons and daughters will be abroad most of the summer, and perhaps till late fall. Mrs. and Miss Knox may also take a short European trip. The family of the secretary of the treasury look forward to a pleasant summer at Point Thompson, on the Vermont shore of Lake Champlain, where Secretary Shaw will take his vacation also.

Postmaster General Payne and Mrs. Payne will remain here late so will Secretary and Miss Wilson.

Secretary Hitchcock has a New Hampshire home and will spend a portion of his summer there. He has a number of important matters in connection with the irrigation and Indian legislation passed by the congress that will compel him to remain in Washington for some time. Mrs. George B. Cortelyou has taken her young family to Hempstead, L. I., where she has a cottage for the summer.

The foreigners are widely scattered, as usual, the French, German and Mexican ambassadors being off for their respective countries, and the Italian and Russian ambassadors are preparing to enjoy the gayeties of Manchester and Bar Harbor for the summer. Many of the members of the staffs of the European embassies and the legation have crossed the ocean, while a few of the notables, like the Austrian minister, will soon be heard from at Bar Harbor.

Mrs. David Jayne Hill and family are at Nantucket, Mass., where Dr. Hill will join them later.

Saves a Woman's Life.

To have given up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from a severe lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often," she writes, "I could scarcely breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was completely cured." Sufferers from coughs, colds, throat and lung trouble need this grand remedy, for it never disappoints. Cures are guaranteed and for sale by J. T. Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

A Hard Worker.

C. E. Lyddane, editor of the Winchester Democrat, is the guest of Harmon Swango, where he is drinking Swango water for his health. This is the first time Mr. Lyddane has had the harness off in 18 years, with the bare exception of two days, and he feels like a racing colt just after his first center. To look after the interests of a paper like the Democrat twice a week is a mission of greater magnitude than any one outside the sanctum can conceive, and the readers of that most excellent journal will agree with us that Mr. Lyddane has twice a week presented them with a literary feast quite satisfying for several years. Provision in that line, as in the affairs of ordinary housekeeping are frequently very scarce but notwithstanding the Lyddane larder has always kept on hand a supply sufficient for the demands upon it, and beside the substantial frequently treats to a dessert that is delightful. So long as Charley Lyddane is the chef in charge the people of Clark will not suffer from lack of newspaper nourishment, and the quality will be as good as the country affords.

The Kidneys and the Skin.

If the kidneys are weak or torpid, the skin will be pimply or blotchy. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and cleans the complexion. By thoroughly purifying the blood it makes good health.

Bill Green of Lexington, assisted by Taylor Whaley of this place, has about completed the laying of the floor in the academy building, and plasterers were expected to begin their work on Tuesday or Wednesday of this week. If they have not done so they will have begun before another paper is published from this office. Later—They went to work Tuesday with a force of three, and helpers.

Keep It in Your Home.

And when the bowels fail to act properly, take a dose of LYON'S LAXATIVE SYRUP—it acts gently but effectively on the kidneys, liver and bowels; will keep your system in good working order and make your complexion clear.

Sold by J. C. Stamper, Grassy Creek. There is a probability that the new academy building will be lighted by electricity. Indeed this is assured if sufficient of the citizens of the town will use their business houses or dwellings, so that the cost may be equitably divided.

DON'T WAIT.

"He's a Tack Driver."

Bud Gaines, a young colored plasterer now working on the new academy building comes as near being a living exponent of the phrase "He is a tack driver," as any man ever seen by "our man about town." He is a son of Nathan Gaines, who has the contract for doing the plastering, and he is certainly quite expert in nailing on laths, seemingly driving nails as fast as a man can count. Several of our citizens visiting the building this week had their attention called to his work and looked upon him with wonder.

Funeral of W. C. Perkins, Deceased.

The funeral of W. C. Perkins, who died on the 5th day of August last, will be preached at the residence on Lacy creek by Dr. Marion Center on the fourth Sunday in August coming. As Mr. Perkins had a host of warm friends in life and a large line of relatives, among whom many in Magoffin as well as Wolfe county, it is thought there will be present a vast assemblage to hear this tribute to his memory. He was a man who had a smile for all and his kindly countenance still shines forth in the hearts of all who knew him well. How then must it be with those who knew him intimately well? Love must be their feeling, and this will be doubtless demonstrated on the occasion referred to.

For 28c in stamps you can get a free trial of Wilson's Tobacco Cure. Has cured thousands.

CORP. WILSON,
Calvert, Texas.

The trustees of this school district on Saturday contracted with Willie Quicksall to teach the public school, and it is hoped the patrons of the district will take more interest than they have for the past few years and send their children. Mr. Quicksall comes highly recommended, and if encouraged by a good attendance will doubtless give us a good school. He will open for books on Monday.

Oscar Cecil informs us that his little daughter Nannie, who was taken suddenly very dangerously ill the latter part of last week, and who has, indeed, been prostrated since the death of her sister Miss Ada, is now considerably better, and the hope is entertained that she will soon be in perfect health again.

"Our man about town" was on Tuesday introduced to Mr. Mays, who is doing the plumbing on the academy building necessary to the introduction of electricity for illumination.

Al Howard, the junior member of Clark & Howard, is here this week superintending work upon the academy, and incidentally trying the virtue of Swango water as a panacea for stomach troubles.

When you have head ache or neuralgia, try Triphene. Sold by S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, and H. F. Pieratt, Hazel Green.

Killie Puckett, a well known character of this community, now lies critically ill of consumption at his home at the old Gibbs place, and is an object upon which our christian and charitable citizens should bestow their bounty.

Aunt Darcus Kash of the Flat Woods neighborhood, was in our town awhile on Saturday, the guest of W. T. Caskey and wife. She was en route to visit her son Squire Kash, who is of the firm of Kash & Hollon, merchants, at Neola.

For Constipation
 This Lyon's Laxative Syrup; if you don't like it better than any Laxative you have ever used, your druggist will refund the money. Price 25c. Sold by J. C. Stamper, Grassy Creek.

Edward Gore and niece, Miss Eva, of Carlisle; C. E. Lyddane of Winchester, Mrs. J. R. Bascom and granddaughter, Miss Colgate, Mrs. Mary Judy and baby, and Mrs. J. W. Shankland all of Shapsburg, are the late arrivals at the Swango House.

Elkana Minton, who escaped the Campton jail Sunday night in company with two others, was captured on Tuesday at George Little's on Gillmore creek by Caesar Linden, and returned to Jailer Little, who had to pay $25 reward he had previously offered.

Quint Daniel and family, who have been visiting Mrs. Daniel's father and mother, Rev. G. D. Combs and wife of Morehead since the close of Hazel Green academy, returned home Saturday. Mr. Daniel is now considering whether he will conduct the dormitory in connection with the academy for next term.

Elkana Minton, Wm. Bryant and Melvin Centers, each confined in the Campton jail on felony charges, escaped from the bastille on Sunday night last, and are still at large. Jailer Little seems to be in the middle of a bad streak of luck. Some eight or ten prisoners have escaped so far in his administration, and it is not yet but a few days over six months old.

CASTORIA

How to Secure Manufactories.
 L. J. Dunning of Petersburg, Ind., who was with John H. Rose for a fortnight or so, left for home Wednesday of last week. Mr. Dunning was here with a view of embarking in business with Mr. Rose to establish a wagon and carriage manufactory. But it was necessary that the citizens of the town, to secure the success of such an enterprise, donate grounds, &c., and their indisposition to do anything in that direction, the isolation of the place from a railroad and other minor incidents prevented him from submitting a proposition. Now, that it is in mind, we want to remind our citizens of the fact that whenever large manufactories are established the corporation generally donates grounds, &c. In return the mechanics employed are a source of revenue to the merchants and other business enterprises, and the town soon feels that it has made a good investment. Bear this in mind, gentlemen trustees, and when anybody comes along to invest meet them half way. A wagon manufactory could be started here that would employ, perhaps, 20 first-class mechanics, and they with their families would add materially to our population, and the money they would spend in the course of a year would be considerable. Our people must learn to look at these things as other towns do, if they hope to improve the place.

Devoting Life to a Noble Cause.
 Miss Molly Haney, who has been a nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital at Lexington for the past 15 months, came home some ten days ago, and has since been visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Clark. She left again on Wednesday to take up her work, much to the regret of her many friends here, who hoped she would remain with us for a month or more. Miss Molly is a young lady of exceptionally gentle, sweet disposition, and superbly fitted for the life work she has chosen. Her smiles and gentle, kindly words will do much to alleviate the suffering of any one who may be in her care, and it is confidently believed, therefore, that she will in time become famous as a nurse for these noble qualities with which nature has so liberally endowed her, and THE HERALD takes especial pride in speaking for her these encouraging words.

If a Man Lie to You.
 And say some other salve, ointment, lotion, oil or alleged healer is as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve, tell him thirty years of marvelous cures of piles, burns, boils, corns, feliens, ulcers, cuts, scalds, bruises and skin eruptions proves it's the best and cheapest. 25 cts. at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton drug stores.

A Mountain of Lumber.
 Roe Nickell, who has been logging on Grassy creek, near old Salem church, tells "our man about town" that since they began work — he and Jahile Phillips — on the 15th of April, they have cut and hauled about 1440 saw logs, and have 250 cut in the woods ready to haul. The length of the logs are 10 to 16 feet, and they will average 20 inches in diameter. As a little figuring will demonstrate, this means an immense pile of lumber when it comes from the saw. This timber boundary embracing 1052 white oak trees was bought from Dave Cox of Morgan county, by John M. Rose of this place, and by the latter gentleman sold to Walter and Carl Day of Frozen Creek, Breathitt county.

Send 35c and get a free trial of Wilson's Morphine Cure; tested for 14 years and always successful. Send to CORP. WILSON, f:30-y Calvert, Texas.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearly on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

Misses Mary and Corda Brennamer took in the fourth at Cannel City.

Edward Oney will teach on Holly near Elkins chapel. He has a good school and a nice place to teach.

Misses Pearl and Callie Johnson, two of Lacy creek's fairest daughters, spent Friday with your scribe.

Lula Taulbee of Daysboro, and James Rose of Lee City passed through here Friday on their way to Campton.

Mrs. Oney, in company with uncle Harrison Swango and wife, attended the funeral of Miss Ada Cecil Thursday.

Mrs. Dr. Centers of your town, and Bruce Cundiff of Breathitt county were pleasant visitors at this place Sunday.

Miss Ettie Swango was visiting at this place Saturday. She will teach the same school she taught last year in Menefee county.

Misses Mattie Evans, Daisie Day, Jessie Wheeler, India and Mollie Coldiron, all of your town, spent Sunday with Uncle Rastus Brooks and family.

Ellis Johnson and sister of Lacy creek left Sunday for Cedar Grove, Montgomery county, where they will visit their uncle Andrew James and family for a few days.

Mrs. Curtis Swango of Chambers station is visiting her old Sunny Side home this week. She informs us that she will teach in Montgomery county this year near her home.

MORGAN COUNTY.

WEST LIBERTY WISPS.

Born, to the wife of John Johnson of Long branch, a girl

Dr. B. F. McClure of Caney visited his daughter, Mrs. J. T. Haney one day last week.

Dr. W. L. Gevedon of Grassy creek is visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. N. Nickell of this place.

Hon. Frank Hopkins was here this week viewing the situation in the interest of his candidacy.

Hon. J. W. Gardner of Salysersville passed through here en route to Farmers on legal business.

Mrs. O. W. Burns of our town, who has been suffering with stomach trouble the past week is about to be up.

J. A. Lacy and wife, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Cox of the Commercial Inn, spent Sunday at Lacy's father's at White Oak.

We are proud to note that Willie Wheeler of your town is rapidly progressing in the art of stenography. He is employed by the noted young lawyer and ex-United States commissioner, F. E. Fogg, and Willie gives entire satisfaction, and also stands in with the belles of the town.

On Thursday Sam Wilson finished the painting of the New Morgan House. The outside is white and trimmed with canary color, and the interior oak and highly varnished, together with the new carpets makes it one of the finest looking hotels you'll see anywhere. Mr. Wilson is now at the Commercial Inn.

The boys here are practicing in order to have a band. There was formerly a band at this place, but some of the blowers got matrimony mixed in their music and put it into execution, which put an end to the concerts. Now, younger people who claim that matrimony has no effect on them, have started another blow and expect to give a concert at an early date to lovers of music.

At twilight's gentle hour one can hear sweet music floating through the air from different abodes within this place. Particularly from the front portico of Dr. Harry Collier's residence. These strains come from the skillful touch of the Doctor and Miss Tide Collier on the mandolin and guitar. Their pure selections, their style of playing with variations tends to place these musical artists in realms where they have no equals.

The young people of this place, 20 couple or more, hid themselves on the 4th to Yocum Springs, and between viewing and climbing the high gigantic rocks and drinking the pure cold water; with dinner on the grounds, and taking in all the beauties that nature has bestowed upon the scene they passed away the day; on arriving the string of buggies stopped in front of the New Morgan House, and the occupants rendered that sweet old melody, "My Kentucky Home" in a beautiful manner. All went to their homes delighted with the day's trip.

EDITORIAL EFFUSIONS.

THE Board of Education of the Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester and the board of trustees at this place have employed Prof. Clark of Hindman to take charge of the public school at this place. Prof. Clark comes highly recommended as one of Kentucky's foremost educators, and it is sincerely hoped that the right man in the right place has been secured. There is nothing that so much tells for the good of a community as a lively up-to-date school conducted by an energetic, wide-awake force of teachers. At the present the people here are united in favor of Prof. Clark, and seem willing to do all in their might to make the school a success. This is a happy state of affairs and augurs well for the people that the too oft fires of internal strife are not urging.

LOCAL LACONICS.

A. H. Stamper is attending circuit court at Beattyville this week.

S. P. Kash, the hustling merchant at Neola, was here Monday on business connected with the county court.

County Clerk Tutt reports the following marriage license issued: July 2nd, Jeff Cox to Annie Finch; July 3rd, George Holbert to Polly Hatton.

Hon. W. O. Mize of Hazel Green was one among the court visitors Monday. He put up at Combs House and got fat. His horse got fat at the livery stable.

The editor and his better attended, Sunday last, the 65th birthday anniversary of J. A. Sewell on Holly, where they enjoyed themselves immensely.

Amos R. Graham, one of the jolly lights of Holly, was in town Monday. He was full of jokes. It is not known whether G. B. Stamper secured a lease on his "gas" or not.

Miss Lee Tutt, a charming young lady of Spradling, Ky., and her accomplished and beautiful cousin, Miss Lula May Bowman of Booneville, Ky., visited relatives here the past week.

On last Sunday night Cane Minton, Wm. Bryant and Melvin H. Center broke jail here and made their escape. They were charged with incest, housebreaking and rape, respectively.

Taylor P. Sewell of Lane, the popular champion of courtship, love, romance and adventure, is licking stamps, "backing" letters and handing out mail in the Campton postoffice this week.

Rev. Jackson Tutt of Spradling, on Monday obtained a writ of habeas corpus for the possession of his grandchild, Thomas Handy, who, it is alleged, is wrongfully detained from him by Frank Handy, &c.

County court convened here Monday with Judge Congleton on the bench. The Judge presided with imposing and commanding dignity. C. C. Fuls looked after the county's interest with brilliancy in one eye and fearlessness in the other.

Andy Butler Cox, the handsome clerk in Vaughn & Congleton's store, attended the 4th of July celebration at Cannel City. He reports it a swell affair. On Frozen creek Butler was alarmed by hearing a sweet, feminine voice singing:

"O, Butler, what a web you weave When you court to deceive."

Prof. Clay Olliver, of High Falls has again stepped to the front, with another freak of nature, he claims to have discovered achicken belonging to Emmet Swimme, that has nine feet, and a head like a man's! He also says that the chicken talks like a man; and can read and write. It is rumored that Clay has sent in his petition to become a member of the Campton Faking Club.

Bob Hill of Beattyville has announced himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for Railroad Commissioner in this district. But — well, the "money" is what makes the mare go, and until we receive $10.00 for his announcement in Campton Courier, we are unprepared to blow the horn loud and clear and give him a boost. Indeed, Hill is a "Hill" that no democrat could travel over nor tear down to a level with democracy as for that matter.

On last Saturday John Rowland hauled one-half of a load of goods up the Torrent Hill, unloaded and went back to the station to get the balance of the load. While he was gone some thief stole a box of shoes and hiked away. The goods were for Easter & Firestein of this place. On Sunday Sam Firestein and Rowland went to Torrent to make a hunt for the box of shoes and succeeded in finding it snugly hid away in the brush and cliffs. Only three pairs of shoes were missing. A certain fellow is under suspicion, and at last accounts an officer was on his trail.

Congressman J. B. White was in town Monday mixing and mingling with his numerous friends. From a democratic standpoint of view Mr. White has made an excellent congressman, and if a democrat must be elected in spite of right principles, hell and campaign boodle (and Uncle Mark Hanna thrown in) it is nothing but justice and the part of wisdom to return Mr. White. His record discloses the fact that he has done much valuable work for the district and far more than is ordinarily expected from a new member. But if there should be a decent, intelligent white republican on the ticket, why just put the cross (x) under the old log cabin.

Following is a partial review of business done in the county and quarterly courts convened here Monday and Tuesday respectively:

Case against John and Howard Moore, selling liquor, acquitted.

Order appointing W. B. Duff guardian ad litem for the infant children of Alison Rose; also appointed commissioner to divide Alison Rose's land for benefit of the heirs.

Order granting Rev. Wm. Galispie license to solemnize the rites of matrimony.

Order appointing H. N. Horton guardian for Monroe and Polly A. Ashly.

Case vs. Bruce Terrill, selling liquor; fined $30 and cost.

Case vs. John Brewer, selling liquor; acquitted.

Case vs. John Brewer and Boone Brewer, selling liquor. The former fined $20; the latter acquitted.

Don't Fail to Try This.

Whenever an honest trial is given to Electric Bitters for any trouble it is recommended for a permanent cure will surely be effected. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the kidneys and bowels, stimulate the liver, invigorate the nerves and purify the blood. It's a wonderful tonic for run-down systems. Electric Bitters positively cures kidney and liver troubles, stomach disorders, nervousness, sleeplessness, rheumatism, neuralgia and expels malaria. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores. Only 50 cents.

Freaks of Lightning.

Lightning struck a pine tree in Johnny Kash's yard on Tuesday and split it wide open. The tree had been topped some years since about 15 feet from the ground, and three limbs grew out from the cut top. The bolt missed the limbs entirely and entered the body like a glut in the end of a saw log, splitting it in two. At the same time, on the Campton road and about equally distant from town Forest Cecil experienced a shock which he described as the pricking of innumerable needles in the palm of the hand. He also felt an acute pain in the left breast.

Need More Help.

Often the over taxed organs of digestion cry out for help by dyspepsia's pains, nausea, dizziness, headaches, liver complaints, bowel disorders. Such troubles call for prompt use of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are gentle, thorough and guaranteed to cure. 25 cents at J. T. Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, druggists.

The funeral of Mrs. Belle Boling, the deceased wife of B. F. Boling, will be preached at Sandfield church on the fourth Sunday in July, at 11 o'clock a. m. by Rev. Dr. Gevedon and others.
